

Chicago Winter Bucket List 2017/2018 (Not For Tourist Edition)

Winters in Chicago can be brutal! You may feel like there's is nothing to do so use this checklist to discover/explore some fun things to do in the city during the winter months.

- Visit a Chicago museum you haven't been to before, Museum of Contemporary Art is on my list
- Find a bar with a fireplace and enjoy a few drinks <http://girlsguidechicago.com/girls-guide-10-places-cozy-fire-winter>
- Enjoy a posh and boozy brunch with your friends! Here are some of my favorites <https://goo.gl/Q4gqQB>
- Go see Hamilton on Broadway in Chicago
- See an independent movie at the Music Box Theatre or Landmark Theatre
- Plan a Chicago staycation and order room service and use all the hotel amenities
- Use Goldstar to find free and discounted comedy shows
- Plan a relaxing spa day, check Groupon for discounts!
- Take advantage of Chicago Restaurant Week
- Start a supper club with your friends and try some of newest restaurants in the city
- Invited the girls to enjoy a dessert night at one of these places <https://goo.gl/iZpi46>
- Go ice skating at the Park at Wrigley, Millennium Park, or Maggie Daley
- Spend the day shopping at the Fashion Outlets of Chicago
- Shopping the after Christmas sales and warming up with a hot chocolate is always a good idea <https://goo.gl/Yxfa81>
- Did you know that some of Chicago's patios and rooftops are open all winter long! Check out which ones? <https://goo.gl/gE6pge>
- Enjoy afternoon tea with your girlfriends <https://goo.gl/y2x9gk>
- Walk around and explore Garfield Park Conservatory
- Go to the SNL, The Experience at the Museum of Broadcast Communications
- Chicago has some of the best hotels, so why not enjoy a few drinks or work in one of these hotel bars? <https://goo.gl/4MUuE5>
