

Free Download: Corporate Culture Checklist

A recent study revealed that a third of employees plan on quitting their job in the next 12 months. The leading causes are corporate culture, better work-life balance, lack of empathy from bosses, and a desire to find more meaningful work. So, it's time to change, starting with a new corporate culture.

Schedule a meeting with each employee

Prepare to listen and take notes

Ask about their happiness

Ask if their job is meaningful

Ask how to improve the corporate culture

Ask if you've provided the best technology to get the job done right

Ask about their work-life balance, and if it can be improved

Ask what they think about remote work and flex hours

Ask if they feel valuable at work.

Ask if they love their job and the company
