

10 Meaningful Ways to Celebrate and Honor Veterans Day

Take a moment to save and complete the items on this checklist. Show your support for our troops and our military on Veterans Day and all year around.

- HUG a vet today or tomorrow or the next day.
- CELEBRATE by supporting local shops and vendors that support our troops.
- CONNECT with a service member.
- HONOR those we've lost by visiting their family, or donate to charitable organizations.
- COMMUNE by visiting your local VA or military hospital and say hello.
- TEACH your children or family members that Veterans Day celebrates all members of the military.
- SUPPORT your closest Fisher House, the non-profit "home away from home" that provides free lodging to families of military members during hospitalization at major military medical facilities.
- VISIT the closest national cemetery and ask to place flags at the headstones, or pick a specific soldier to honor.
- DONATE to organizations that support our veterans.
- REMEMBER with a simple "thank you" at any time during the year is a great way to show appreciation for all our military members past and present for the service they provide every day.
